

PT. Indo- Rama Synthetics Tbk (“Indorama”)

Human Rights Policy

Indorama strongly believes in respecting all human rights. We are committed to respecting human rights as embodied in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and its two corresponding covenants, The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and The International Covenant on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights. We will avoid infringing on human rights and comply with the laws of the countries in which we do business.

Respect for Human Rights

We respect the rights of our employees and all other stakeholders and shall not discriminate against anyone based on their ideological views, race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, or any status regarded as a human right. We will adopt reasonable and inclusive practices throughout our operations and will seek to eradicate prejudice, discrimination, bullying and harassment.

Fair Treatment of Employees

We will treat all employees fairly and honestly, regardless of where they work.

Recruitment

All recruitment will be carried out with regard to fairness, equality and consistency for all candidates at all times. Recruitment practices will be inclusive and we will endeavor to ensure there are no barriers to employment of suitable candidates.

Child Labor

We will not employ illegal child labor, forced or bonded labor, or allow forced overtime. No person shall be employed unless such employment is in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations concerning age, hours, compensation, health and safety.

Disciplinary Issues

We will not use corporal punishment, mental or physical coercion or verbal abuse. We have disciplinary procedures for any member of staff whose conduct falls below this required standard.

Responsibility of Employees

All employees have a personal responsibility for the practical application of this policy in their day-to-day activities and must support the policy at all times.

Non-compliance with this policy will be treated seriously and will not be tolerated.

Grievance Procedures

We have grievance procedures through which staff can raise personal and work-related issues. Any employee who feels that he or she has grounds for complaint in relation to bullying, discrimination, harassment or victimization has the right to pursue the complaint through our grievance procedures.
